What are the Asian Games?

The Asian Games are a multi-sport event organised by the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA), held once every four years in principle, involving Asian countries and regions.

History of the Asian Games

In 1951, shortly after the end of World War II, the first Asian Games were held in New Delhi, India with the participation of 11 countries.

A desire emerged that, through the event, the bonds among Asian countries torn apart by the war could be restored through sports, thereby contributing to permanent peace in Asia. Since then, the Asian Games have become a major event, contributing to international peace by cultivating friendships through sports and acknowledging diversity.

In Japan, the third Asian Games were held in Tokyo in 1958, and the 12th in Hiroshima in 1994. In 2026, the 20th Games will be held in Nagoya, Aichi, thus returning to Japan for the first time in 32 years.

Games Overview

The 20th Asian Games Aichi-Nagoya 2026 will be the next big event in the sports world following the 2020 Tokyo Olympic and Paralympic Games. It is a very meaningful event for all of Japan, as it provides the opportunity to further deepen the growing exchanges within Asia.

Games Concept

- Centred on the Athletes
- Using Existing Facilities
- Making Full Use of State-of-the-Art Technology
- Traditional and Regional Hospitality
- Hosting the Asian Games with Pride and Contributing to Sports Culture

Games Overview

Period	Sat 19 September to Sun 4 October, 2026 (16 days)
Main Venue	Nagoya City Mizuho Park Athletic Stadium
Participating Countries and Regions	45 countries and regions in Asia
Teams	Up to 15,000 people (Athletes & Team Officials)

Sports

- 32 sports included in the Paris Olympic Games
 - 05 sports played in the five regions of Asia
 - 02 sports proposed by the Organising Committee
 - 02 sports proposed by the OCA
- 41 sports in total

Games Emblem

The liveliness of sports is depicted through free-flowing curves. The centre line, emerging from a brightly shining sun (the symbol of the OCA) and the purple, gold and green, inspires the image of people coming together as one, and going forward to the future.

The emblem colours are fitting of Aichi and Nagoya, with the purple of the rabbit-ear iris, the prefectural flower of Aichi, the gold of the kinshachi, golden tiger-fish roof ornaments which are a symbol of Nagoya Castle, and the green of environmental consciousness, fostered through EXPO 2005 Aichi, COP 10 and the UNESCO World Conference on ESD.

And looking closely, one can see Asia and Aichi's "A" in the purple curve and centre line, and Nagoya's "N" in the purple and gold curves.

Games Slogan

IMAGINE ONE ASIA

ここで、ひとつに。

Sports have a power to bring people together beyond the barriers of language, culture and nationality.

The slogan represents a wish for Aichi-Nagoya 2026 to make the most of this power, and for each of us living in diverse society to imagine their own ONE ASIA, so that our bonds can be strengthened, bringing us forward to a bright future.

Also represented is a hope for the athletes, volunteers, spectators, and others taking part in the Games to come together as one through sharing various time, space, experiences and awe.

Games Core Graphics

The Core Graphics is the visual that symbolizes the 20th Asian Games and serves as the foundation for unique designs used in the decoration of competition venues and cityscapes.

Its basic form is a layered composition that combines the Arc “Glory Bridge,” derived from the Games Emblem, with “Icons” that express brand elements characteristic of Aichi and Nagoya.

Games Mascot

The mascot of the 20th Asian Games, “HONOHON,” was born from the fiery passion that dwells in the hearts of athletes, becoming one with Shachihoko, the guardian deity of Aichi-Nagoya.

The name “HONOHON” is derived from the word “Honoho,” which is said to be the origin of the Japanese word meaning “flame.” This word comes from the image of fire rising high and burning brightly, resembling the shape of a rice ear (“ho” in Japanese). To make the name sound more friendly, we named it “HONOHON.”

Sport Pictograms

The sport pictograms for the 20th Asian Games were developed with simplicity as a fundamental principle to fulfill their core function. At the same time, the design incorporates the arc motif "Glory Bridge" from the Games emblem as a design concept, expressing the dynamism and strength of athletes, as well as the speed and "movement" of sports. Furthermore, by connecting the Glory Bridge with the silhouettes of the athletes, the design expresses a spirit of "harmony" and "unity," resonating with the Games slogan, "IMAGINE ONE ASIA ここで、ひとつに。" Based on these ideas, the sport pictograms for this Games were developed under the concept "Resonate as One 共に響きあう," aiming to provide a consistent and unified visual image when viewed as a whole, while also enhancing the distinctiveness of each individual design.

Important Notes

1. the Act on Prohibition of Unauthorized Ticket Resale

The Act on Ensuring Proper Distribution of Admission Tickets through the Prohibition of Unauthorized Resale of Specified Event Admission Tickets (commonly referred to as the Act on Prohibition of Unauthorized Ticket Resale) came into effect on 14 June 2019. Any unauthorized resale constitutes a serious criminal offence, which may result in fines or other criminal penalties.

The Organising Committee will conduct monitoring and investigations regarding the use of tickets and will take strict action against any individuals or organisations found to be in violation.

We kindly ask for your cooperation in handling and managing tickets with due care and in strict compliance with the prescribed rules.

2. Ticket Type

(1) Child Ticket

This is a discounted ticket for children under 15 years old as of the session date. Please note that age verification may be required at entry.

Child pricing is available only for the lowest seating category in each sport discipline. This ticket offers good value for families and groups attending together.

When children under 15 spectate together with companions aged 15 or over, the spectators aged 15 or over must purchase a General Ticket in the lowest seating category (e.g., for Basketball, spectators aged 15 or over must purchase a General Ticket of Category B, while the children aged 3–14 may purchase a Child Ticket).

*The lowest seat category is General Admission.

Children under 3 years old (not yet in school) may enter free of charge if seated on a guardian's lap. (A ticket is required if a seat is needed.)

If you wish to purchase seats other than the lowest seating category, children under 15 must purchase tickets at the standard price.

(2) Disability Discount Ticket

A discounted ticket is available for persons with a disability certificate and any number of accompanying persons. The disability certificate will be checked at the time of entry.

The discount is available only for the lowest seating category for each sport.

If you wish to purchase seats other than the lowest price category, please purchase a standard price ticket.

The lowest seating category is general admission (with some exceptions).

All accompanying persons must enter and exit the venue together with the ticket holder with a disability certificate.

Separate entry or exit is not permitted. There seating category, including higher categories, please purchase a ticket at the regular price, even if you hold a disability certificate.

2. Ticket Type

(3) Wheelchair Ticket

This ticket allows guests using a wheelchair and one accompanying person to attend the event together. (One accompanying person only.)

Wheelchair seating is available for all sessions.

The wheelchair user will be charged the Wheelchair Ticket price, and one accompanying person may attend free of charge. The accompanying seat will be located adjacent to the wheelchair space.

The accompanying person must enter and exit the venue together with the wheelchair user at the same time. Separate entry or exit is not permitted.

(4) Heartful Ticket

This is a special promotional ticket for groups of 2 to 4 people, including at least one senior (65+) or a person with a disability.

All members of the group may purchase tickets at the child rate for each session. Please note that valid ID (age verification or disability certificate) will be required at entry. Seating will be in the lowest available category.

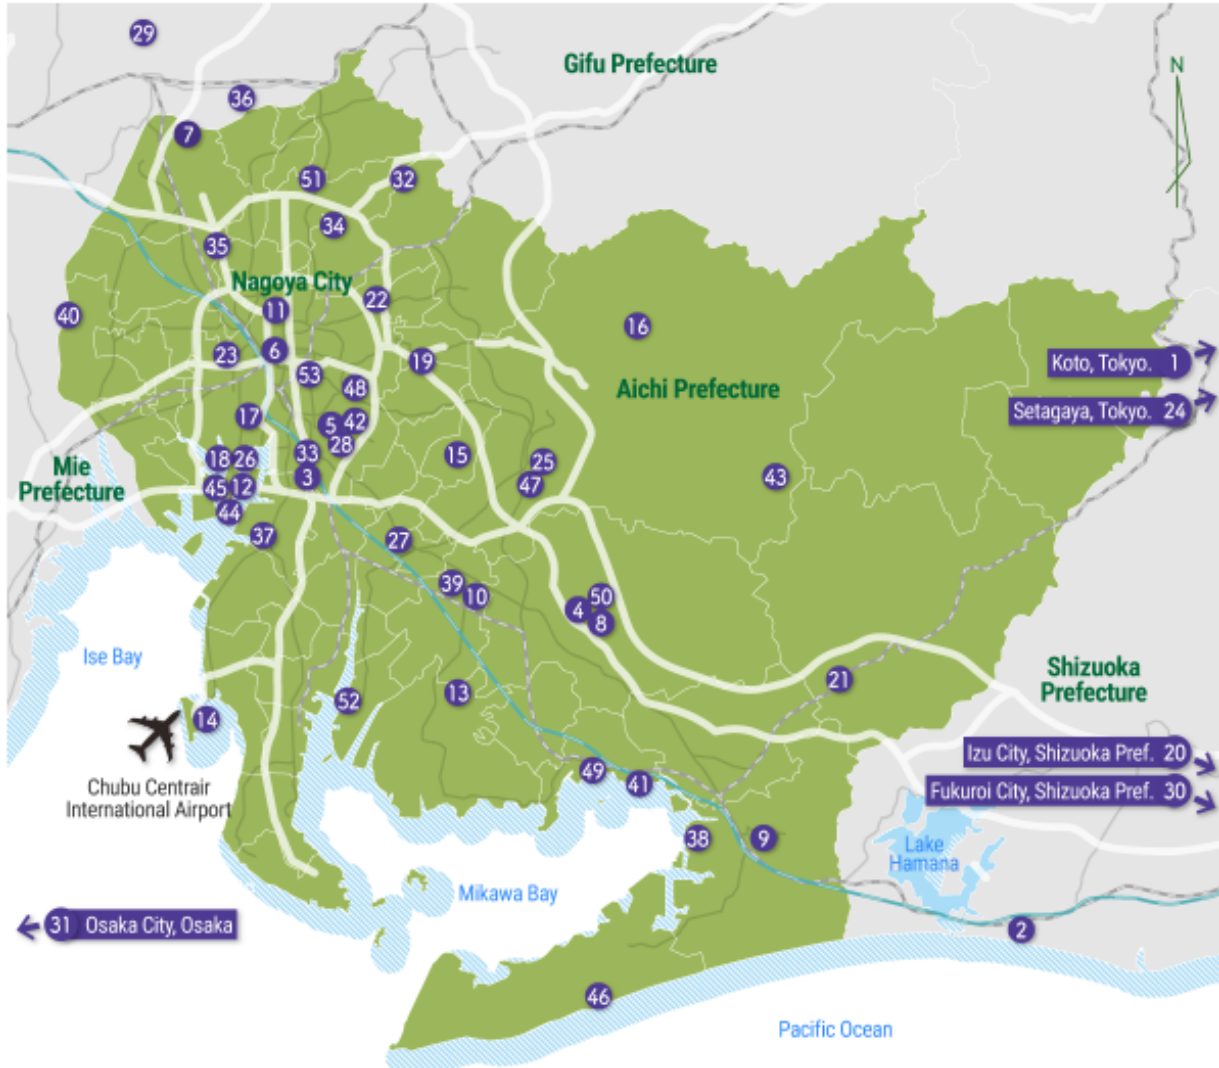

3. Advance Registration of Accompanying Persons and Identity Verification

For certain sessions, including the Opening Ceremony and the Closing Ceremony, ticket purchasers are required to submit in advance the details of all attendees, including accompanying persons. Identity verification will be conducted at the time of entry, and admission may be denied if an attendee's identity cannot be confirmed. Thank you for your understanding.

If a violation of the above rules is identified, the Organising Committee may invalidate any tickets already sold and revoke the right to purchase tickets.

Opening Ceremony / Closing Ceremony

Spreading from Aichi-Nagoya to Asia! Let our "heart" unite as "one"

The concept for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies is “HEART BEAT Aichi-Nagoya.”

From Aichi and Nagoya, we aim to create a performance that allows athletes from Asia—and all people in Asia—to become “one” through heartfelt emotion and shared excitement.

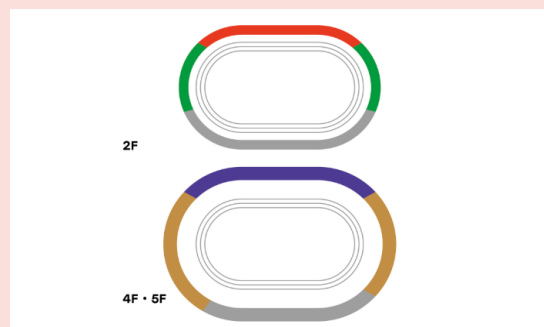

While fully expressing the unique character of Aichi and Nagoya, we will deliver moments that unite the heartbeat and the spirit of both athletes and spectators across Asia.

Under the direction of Chief Director Yukihiro Tsutsumi, who was grown up in Nagoya City, Aichi Prefecture, we invite you to witness a truly world-class performance—live, on-site, and up close!

When attending the opening or closing ceremonies, prior registration of visitor information is required. Upon admission, identity verification will be conducted based on the registered visitor information. For details, please note the following:

■ Identity Verification at Entry

At the designated location, please show your admission ticket and valid identification document(s) to the staff. Acceptable identification document(s) is/are either of the following:

- ONE government-issued photo ID (e.g., Driver’s License, My Number Card, Passport, Disability Certificate, Student ID Card, Residence Card, etc.)

- TWO government-issued IDs without photo (e.g., Confirmation of Qualification, Pension Handbook, Pension Certificate, Copy of Residence Certificate, etc.)

※Please note that if you cannot show the above identification document(s) or cannot verify your identity, you will not be allowed to enter the event venue.

■ How to Register Visitor Information

Further details will be sent later to the email address registered on the website.

■ Notes for the Event Day

- During performances, admission will be restricted, and movement within the venue will be limited at certain times for production purposes.

- Please make sure to arrive by the specified time to be announced on the official ticket information website, for identity verification procedures.

- If you arrive after the specified time, your admission may be refused. Please note that tickets cannot be refunded in such cases.

- As admission procedures are expected to be very crowded, we kindly request your early arrival.

Schedules, event details and seating arrangements are subject to change based on operational requirements.

Aquatics (Diving)

The ultimate leap etched on water, where challenge and beauty merge.

The highlight of diving is its “fleeting beauty,” which unfolds in less than two seconds from the start of the performance.

Judging begins with the starting position and evaluates elements such as the takeoff, aerial movements, and water entry, with deductions from a maximum score of 10.

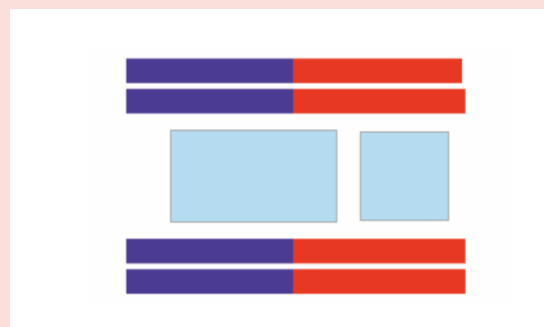

One key criterion for water entry is achieving a dive with absolutely no splash—only bubbles visible on the surface—which earns a very high score. So keep an eye out for this when you watch!

Aquatics (Artistic Swimming)

A Captivating Performance Blending Sports with Art! Spotlight on Dynamic, and Delicate Movements!

Artistic swimming is a sport that captivates with its power, grace, and perfect harmony. Athletes perform synchronized movements to music, expressing emotion and beauty through their routines. Behind the elegance lies immense strength, endurance, and precise technique.

With teamwork and trust as their foundation, they execute complex maneuvers without ever touching the bottom of the pool. Each performance tells a story, creating a world of beauty where sport and art merge.

Adorned with dazzling costumes and music, it is truly an underwater art performance.

Aquatics (Water Polo)

The Ultimate Underwater Battle — Experience Water Polo's Intensity!

Water polo originated in the United Kingdom in the 1860s and is the only ball sport played in a swimming pool.

Matches consist of four periods of eight minutes each and are played in a pool at least 2 meters deep, on a court measuring 25 meters in length and 20 meters in width.

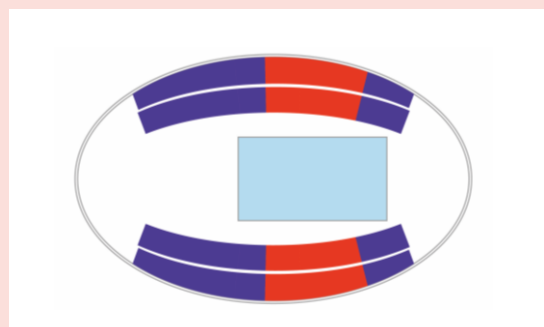

Two teams compete by throwing the ball into the opponent's goal to score points. Since players are not allowed to touch the bottom of the pool during play, the sport requires not only speed but also endurance.

Archery(1/2)

Don't miss the tense moment when a single millimeter difference decides victory!

Archery is a sport in which archers shoot arrows at a target from a set distance and compete for points. Hitting the center of the target earns a highest score (10 points), and points decrease the further from the center the arrow hits. Competitors shoot a set number of arrows, and the total score determines the winner.

It is also popular as a lifelong sport, and by using equipment suited to one's physique and strength, anyone can enjoy it regardless of age or gender.

Athletics (Track&Field)(1/4)

Feel the thrill as athletes chase the fastest, highest, and farthest marks ever achieved.

Athletics is a simple yet fundamental sport in which athletes run, jump, and throw to demonstrate how fast, how high, and how far they can go. The sport consists of track events, which take place on a 400-meter oval track and include sprints, middle- and long-distance races, and hurdle events; and field events, conducted within the infield area, such as jumping and throwing disciplines.

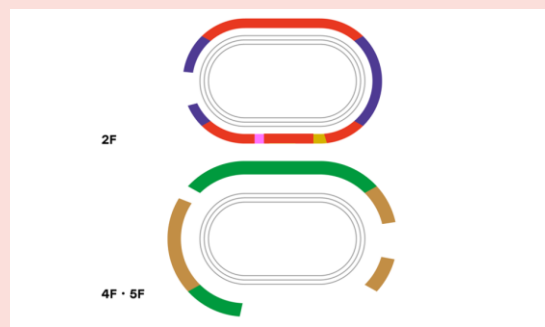

Because a wide variety of events are held within a single competition, athletics is considered one of the showcase sports of the Games.

Athletics (Marathon)

The sheer physical and mental strength packed into 42.195km! This race showcases the intense strategic battles between competitors, all set against the captivating backdrop of the cityscape.

The marathon is a race run on paved roads covering a distance of 42.195 kilometers. Its name originates from the Greek place name "Marathon." It is said that in 450 BC, a messenger soldier ran approximately 40 kilometers to Athens to deliver news of victory in the Battle of Marathon.

Athletics (Race Walk)

Marvel at the beauty of the form and astonishing speed, where millimeter precision is essential!

Race Walk is a sport that competes for speed through walking, not running like in a marathon. Strict rules govern the walking form, such as the requirement that one foot must always remain in contact with the ground (loss of contact) and that the knee must not bend from the moment the foot touches the ground until it is perpendicular to the ground (bent knee).

Competitors strive for the fastest speed while adhering to these rules.

Badminton(1/2)

The World's Best Converge on Ichinomiya! Fastest Shots, Razor-Sharp Tactics, the Ultimate Rallies

Badminton is a racket sport in which players exchange a shuttlecock over a net. It is believed to have its origins in a feathered-shuttle game introduced to Britain. All matches are best-of-three games, with the first player to win two games claiming victory. Each game is won by the first player to reach 21 points.

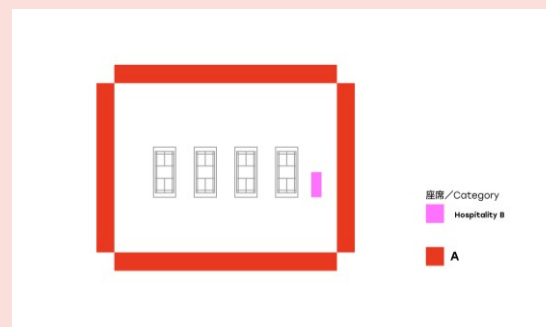

Because rallies can be enjoyed with ease by players of all ages and abilities, the sport is widely appreciated across generations.

Softball

The Ultimate Diamond Battle to Crown Asia's Strongest!

Softball is played in a way similar to baseball, but there are notable differences in field size and the ball used.

The ball has a circumference of 12 inches, and it is hit with a thin, lightweight bat designed specifically for softball. As a result, batted balls tend to travel shorter distances.

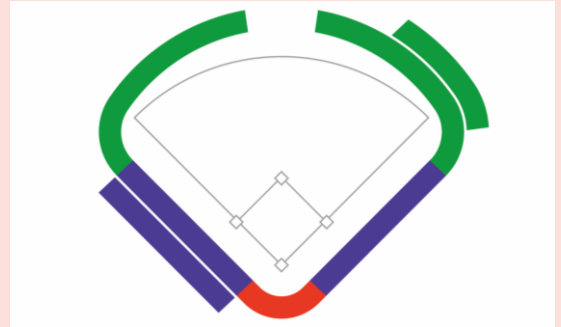

Games are played over seven innings, and the team with the higher score at the end wins.

If the score is tied after seven innings, extra innings are played using the "tie-break" rule. From the eighth inning onward, a runner is placed on second base with no outs to help determine the winner more quickly.

Basketball(1/2)

Brilliant passwork and powerful dunks!
Attractive basketball that leads to victory is here!

Five players from one team connect the ball with passes and dribbles to shoot into the opposing team's ring and compete for the goal. Shots from outside the 3-point line will score 3 points, shots from the inside will score 2 points, and free throws will be worth 1 point.

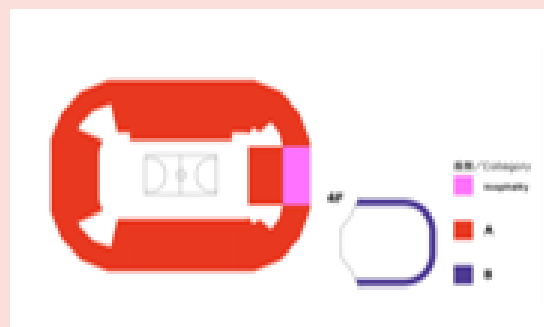

At the Tokyo Olympics, the women won a silver medal and practiced "even if they are small, they can win".

Basketball (3x3)

Born on the Streets! Experience the Speed and Excitement of 3x3 Basketball

3x3 basketball originated and developed mainly in the street scene, and in 2007, official unified rules were established, making it a recognized new discipline of basketball.

Each team consists of three players on the court (with one substitute), and the court is about half the size of a traditional 5-on-5 basketball court, making it an easy and accessible sport to play.

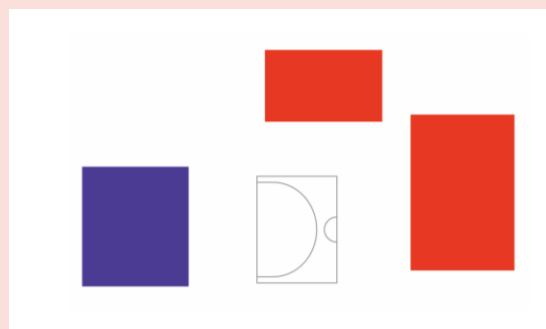

Shots made from behind the two-point line count as two points, while those made inside count as one point.

Canoe / Kayak (Sprint)

Splashing water as they race across the surface!
Mastering the water with strength and skill!
The ultimate speed showdown is here!

Canoe Sprint involves competing for speed on a straight course set on calm water, with competitors starting simultaneously across nine lanes. There are two types: kayaks (K), where athletes sit upright and paddle on both sides, and canoes (C), where athletes kneel and paddle on one side.

Events include singles (one-person), doubles (two-person), and fours (four-person). Canoe Sprint demands a broad range of skills: explosive power, endurance, technique, and balance.

Canoe / Kayak (Slalom)

Beat the whitewater with power and skill. Push beyond your limits and paddle through the course.

Canoe Slalom is a sport where athletes paddle through a series of gates set on a whitewater course, competing for both speed and accuracy. Green gates must be passed going downstream, while red gates must be passed going upstream.

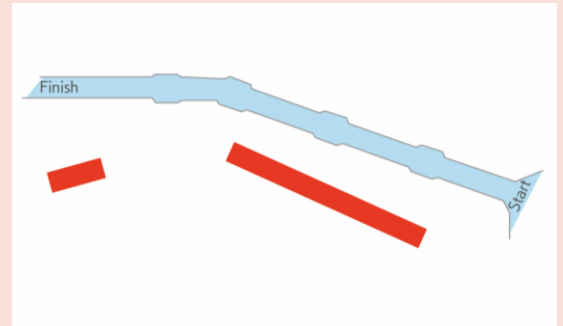

Touching a gate or missing one results in penalties, and the final ranking is based on the total of the finish time and penalties. Canoe Slalom requires strength and skill to control the boat in powerful currents.

Combat Sports (Jiu Jitsu)

A split-second decision, a brief opening, and a flawless finishing move. That beautiful technique decides the outcome.

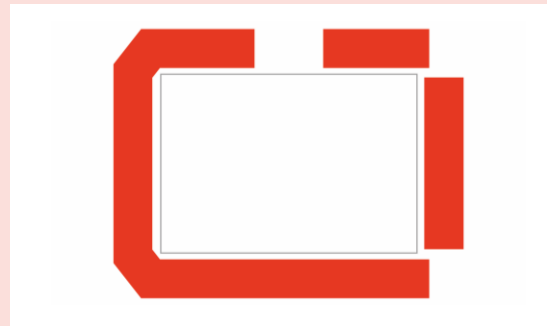

Jiu Jitsu is a martial art rooted in Japanese martial traditions. It emphasizes grappling and ground techniques, aiming to control opponents using joint locks and chokeholds known as submissions. A victory is only achieved by submission when the opponent taps out. Points are awarded for throws, mount positions, back control, and other positional advantages. Victory is determined by submission or by accumulating the most points.

Combat Sports (Kurash)

Throw, Dodge, Throw, Endure, and Throw! A battle of dazzling and beautiful throws!

Kurash is a traditional martial art with ancient roots in Central Asia. In recent years, its popularity has spread globally, particularly gaining traction across Asia.

The competition focuses primarily on throwing techniques, with victory achieved by forcing an opponent's back to the ground.

Ground techniques, chokeholds, and joint locks are prohibited; victory is determined solely by standing throws.

Combat Sports (Mixed Martial Arts)

All martial arts converge here! The ultimate mixed combat — mixed martial arts makes its debut at the Asian Games!

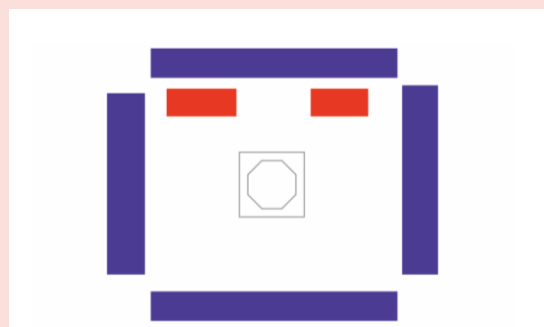

Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) is a combat sport that combines striking, grappling, throwing, and submission techniques. Victory is determined by knockout (KO), technical knockout (TKO), surrender, or a judge's decision. There are two styles: "traditional," in which fighters wear gis, and "modern," in which fighters wear shorts and a rash guard.

Cricket (T20)

Played Over 360 Degrees. Asia Fires Up with a Game Between Bat & Ball.

Cricket is a ball game played over multiple innings between two teams of 11 players each. In each innings, one team bats, attempting to score runs, while the other team bowls and fields the ball, attempting to restrict the scoring and dismiss the batters. During the batting innings, a batter can hit the ball in any direction using a wooden bat, and runs between the wickets with another batter to score runs before the ball returns. On the fielding side, bowlers bowl the ball trying to end the innings by getting the batters out. The winner is the team that scores the most runs. Match formats include Test matches, One Day matches, and T20 matches. T20 is an aggressive and fast format of the game in which each team bats for one inning of 20 overs, facing 120 balls.

This is the format that will be adopted for the Aichi-Nagoya 2026 Games, and its dynamic batting and strategic nature are its attractions.

Cycling (Track)(1/2)

Athletes with highly trained bodies use cutting-edge bicycles to push the limits of human speed.

This is a race where cyclists compete for speed by riding laps around an oval track, and there are many different events. A distinctive feature of the track is its banked corners, designed to allow high-speed riding.

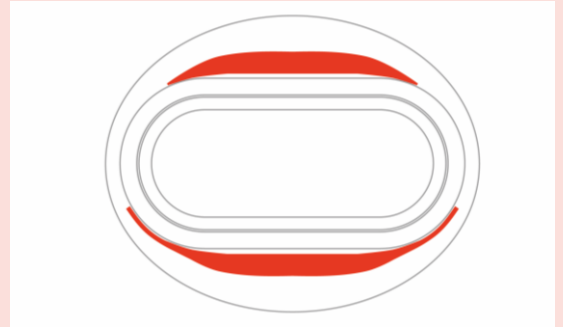

Riders use fixed-gear bicycles with no brakes or gear shifting, and must continuously pedal throughout the race.

Cycling (Road)

Riders with powerful, finely honed engines built into their bodies unleash their bicycles as weapons, driving themselves to shatter the limits of speed.

Cycling Road is a sport contested on public roads, where competitors race for position. It comprises road races, contested by teams, and individual time trials. Road Race is both an individual and a team event, characterised significantly by the role of support riders who make strategic moves to guide the team leader to victory.

Cycling (Mountain Bike)

"Race through rugged trails in a thrilling mountain bike competition!"

Mountain biking is a relatively new discipline among cycling sports, and it is popular not only as a competitive event but also as a sport for enjoying nature. In "cross-country," riders complete several laps of a course about 4 kilometers long with varied terrain, requiring not only power but also technical skills, making it a comprehensive test of abilities.

Cycling (BMX Racing)

"A high-speed BMX competition packed with jumps and banked corner!"

In BMX racing, up to eight riders race simultaneously around a roughly 400-meter track with continuous jumps, competing for their finishing positions. Although taking the lead early and maintaining it to the end is said to be advantageous, collisions and falls are common, making for fierce and thrilling races that are sometimes described as "martial arts."

Cycling (BMX Freestyle)

The popular BMX freestyle makes its debut at the Asian Games! Let's watch the exciting battles at the Aichi Sky Expo.

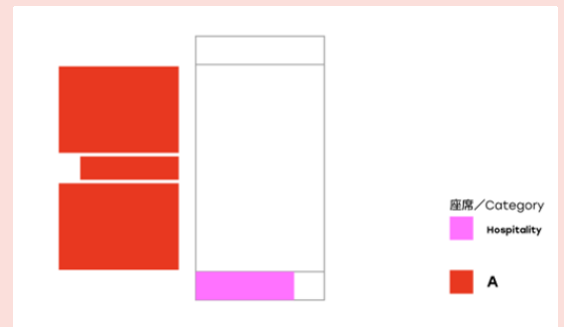

This cycling event takes place in a competition area featuring multiple jumps, where riders execute a series of spectacular aerial maneuvers. They compete based on the difficulty, execution, and originality of their tricks. While crashes or putting a foot down during the run significantly impact the score, riders boldly challenge themselves with highly original big tricks and sequences, aiming for high scores despite the risks.

Golf

The international tournament lands at Kasugai Country Club, Aichi ! Experience the thrilling battles of Asia's top players !

Golf is a competition where players use a club to hit a ball and aim to sink it into a cup in the fewest strokes possible.

Players are limited to using a maximum of 14 clubs. The competition typically consists of 4 rounds played over 4 days on a course structured with 18 holes per round.

Each hole has a standard number of strokes assigned to it, and sinking the ball in this designated number of strokes is called a 'Par'

Gymnastics (Artistic)

Higher, more beautiful, and more difficult! - A sport where difficulty meets artistry in the quest for perfection.

Men's Artistic Gymnastics has six apparatus: Floor Exercise, Pommel Horse, Still Rings, Vault, Parallel Bars and Horizontal Bar. Women's Artistic Gymnastics has four apparatus: Vault, Uneven Bars, Balance Beam, and Floor Exercise. Gymnasts are awarded a D score for difficulty and an E score for execution.

The difficulty score is based on the performed moves, earning between 0.1 and 1.0 points per move. The top eight moves are counted for women, and top 10 for men, to give them their score associated with the vault skill element.

For their E score, every gymnast starts with the perfect 10.0 score, with points deducted for any mistakes.

Handball(1/2)

Run. Jump. Throw. Dynamic offense and defense, brilliant shots—see it live.

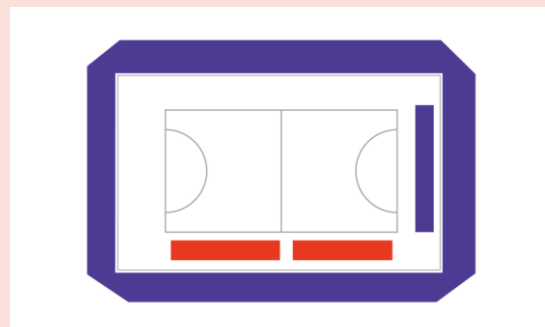

Handball features one goalkeeper defending the team's goal and six court players who use dribbling and passing to drive toward the opponent's goal and score. Transitions happen in a flash, so games move at a fast pace. Because frontal body contact is permitted, you'll also see powerful, combat-sport-like collisions and plays.

Hockey

Masterful stick handling and powerful shots! The fast and thrilling gameplay is what makes it so captivating

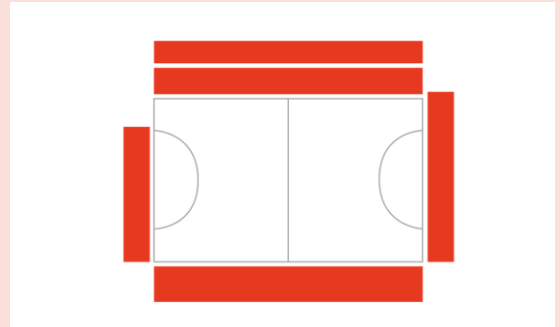

Hockey is a sport where two teams of 11 players compete to score by hitting a ball with sticks toward the goal. Except for the goalie, players aren't allowed to touch the ball with their hands or feet—they can only use one side of the stick to control it. There's no offside rule like in soccer, so the game is fast, dynamic, and full of excitement!

Judo

One instant. Four minutes of electrifying drama.

Judo is a martial art originating from Japan and an Olympic sport where athletes compete one-on-one on the tatami, using both standing techniques and groundwork.

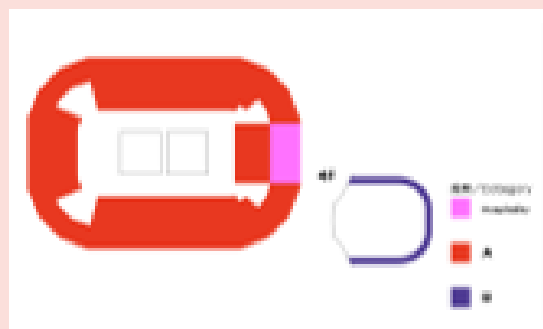

Matches are held by weight category in both individual and mixed team events. Victory is determined by scoring points through techniques (Ippon, Waza-ari, Yuko) and penalties.

Kabaddi

Be a prey? Be a hunter?
A group combat sport that fought solely with one's own body. You'll forget to blink.

Kabaddi originated in BC. The technique of surrounding prey and fighting without weapons, as well as a way to defend against animal attacks, eventually evolved into the sport that became kabaddi. Kabaddi is a unique game with unique rules that combine tag and dodgeball. Each team consists of seven players. One raider (attacker) enters the opponent's court, touches the body of the ante (defensive) player, and then returns to their own side to eliminate the player who touched them. Each player receives a point. While attacking, players must keep saying "kabaddi" without taking a breath. If they stop breathing, say something other than "kabaddi," or fail to return to their own side, they are eliminated and the defending team scores. An eliminated player leaves the court and can return if a teammate scores.

Karate(1/2)

From Japan to the World — KARATE Strikes into 200 Countries and Regions.

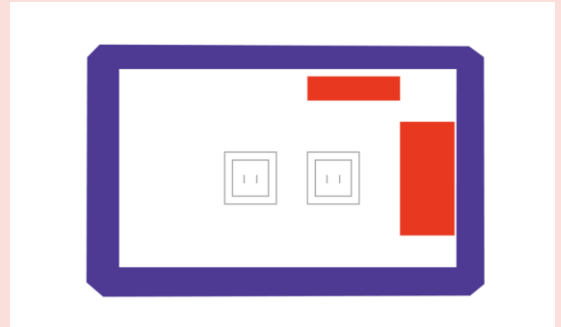

Karate is a martial art originating in Okinawa during the Ryukyu Kingdom era. Kata is a pre-arranged demonstration combining attack and defense techniques against an imaginary opponent, with victory determined by scoring. Kumite involves two competitors freely attacking each other with perfect control. The one scored more points is declared as the winner.

Modern Pentathlon

"Modern Pentathlon: The King of Sports, Embracing Diverse Athletic Skills!"

Modern pentathlon is the ultimate multi-discipline sport, where a single athlete takes on five completely different events in one day: fencing, obstacle, swimming, and the combined laser-run (shooting + running). This demanding competition tests mind, skill, and body to the fullest.

Originally held over five days, it has evolved with the times and is now completed in just 90 minutes.

Due to its history and intensity, it is often called the "King of Sports."

Rowing

Thrilling speed on water!
The ultimate sport that tests teamwork and technique!

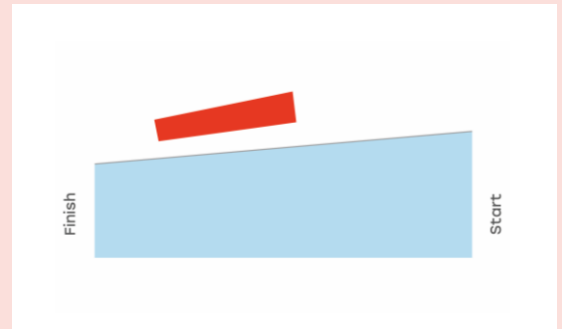

Rowing takes place at a straight course on the water, where participants use oars to propel their boats and compete by the order in which their boat's bow crosses the finish line. There are two types of events: the "scull" event, where a single rower uses two oars, one on each side, and the "sweep" event, where each rower uses one oar.

Rugby (Rugby Sevens)

Sevens Rugby: A sport of breathtaking speed and power that across the field!!

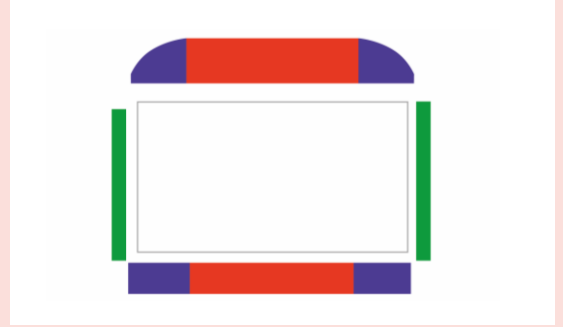

Rugby is a sport in which players carry an oval-shaped ball toward the opponent's goal area while passing the ball backwards, competing to score points. Points are earned through actions such as a try (5 points), achieved by grounding the ball in the opponent's try zone, and a conversion goal (2 points), by kicking the ball between the goalposts after a try.

Sailing

Ride the wind, master the waves — sailing is the ultimate marine sport, where skill and strategy define champions.

Sailing is a sport in which one or two athletes board a boat and skillfully adjust the sail to harness the wind, competing along a designated course. Points are awarded based on finishing positions in each race, and the team with the lowest total score at the end of the series is declared the winner.

Sepaktakraw(1/2)

A martial art in the air, where dynamic leaps and delicate ball control converge

Sepaktakraw is a sport played over a net, using the feet, thighs, or head to kick a ball into the opponent's court, similar to volleyball. It is a traditional sport that has been passed down in Southeast Asian countries since the 9th century. At this Asian Games, the men's competition features three events: Regu (teams of three), Quadrant (teams of four), and Team Regu (team event).

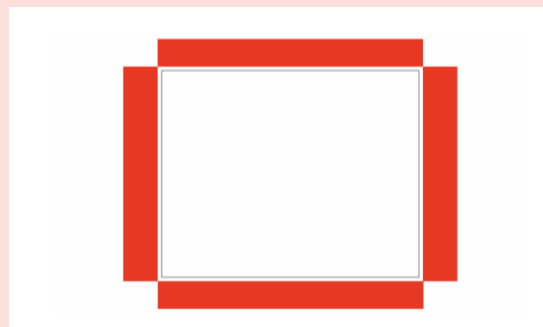

The women's competition also features three events: Double (teams of two), Quadrant (teams of four), and Team Regu (team event).

Shooting(1/3)

Heart-pounding tension Let's cheer on the shooters!

Shooting is a sport where competitors aim firearms at designated targets to compete for accuracy. In "rifle shooting" and "pistol shooting," competitors aim at the center of a stationary target with their firearm, competing for points based on how close the bullet hits the target's center.

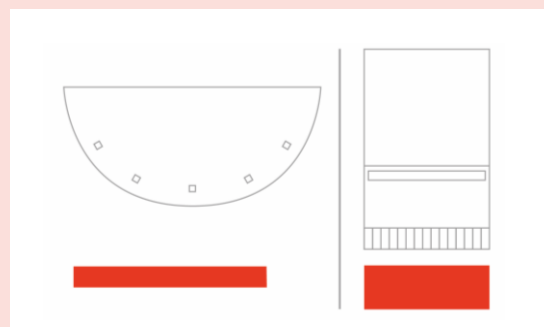

On the other hand, "clay shooting" involves launching unglazed clay discs called clay targets into the air and aiming shotguns at them.

Shooting(3/3)

Heart-pounding tension Let's cheer on the shooters!

Shooting is a sport where competitors aim firearms at designated targets to compete for accuracy. In "rifle shooting" and "pistol shooting," competitors aim at the center of a stationary target with their firearm, competing for points based on how close the bullet hits the target's center.

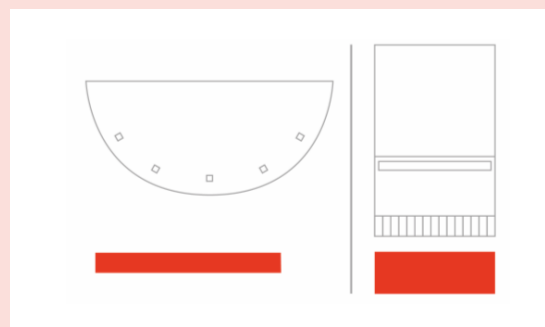

On the other hand, "clay shooting" involves launching unglazed clay discs called clay targets into the air and aiming shotguns at them.

Skateboarding(1/2)

Athletes deliver the ultimate performance.
Not a single moment to look away.

Skateboarding has gained popularity mainly among young people and has spread worldwide as a relatively new sport. There are two disciplines: "Street," where athletes perform tricks on a linear course, and "Park," where they compete on a course with complex shapes. It is a judged event where competitors are scored on the difficulty, execution, and originality of their tricks.

Surfing

Surfing makes its Debut at the Asian Games ! One moment with the Ocean will decide the Asia Champion.

Surfing originated with the ancient Polynesians and grew into a celebrated ocean sport in Hawaii. During competition, athletes ride about 10 to 12 waves within a set time, with rankings determined by the combined score of their two best rides. Judges evaluate based on difficulty and creativity of maneuvers, as well as speed, power, and overall dynamism.

Table Tennis(1/2)

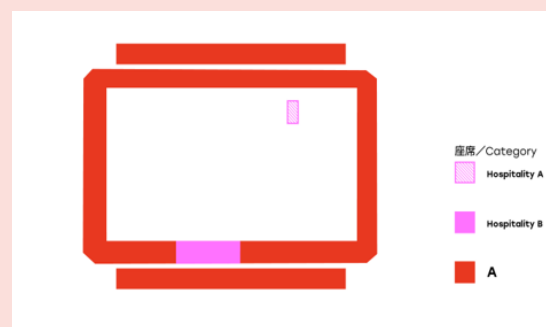

One shot, one moment can change history. Can anyone break the fortress of China, the absolute champion? Don't take your eyes off the rallies that will shake the world.

Table tennis originated in England as an indoor sport to enjoy during rainy weather. Players hit a ball—40 mm in diameter and weighing 2.7 g—back and forth across a table, competing for points. Each game is played to 11 points, and matches are typically best of 5 or 7 games depending on the event and round. Because it can be enjoyed regardless of age or skill level, table tennis is also popular as a lifelong sport.

Taekwondo

A graceful performance where stillness and motion unite. A dazzling exchange of kicks. A series of intense and dynamic confrontations.

Originating from traditional martial arts of the Korean Peninsula, Taekwondo is recognized as the national sport of Korea. It features two main disciplines:

'Kyorugi' (sparring), an Olympic event that resembles a mix of karate and kickboxing, and 'Poomsae' (forms), a unique event in the Asian Games where athletes perform choreographed movements combining offensive and defensive techniques in multiple directions. In addition, the 20th Asian Games Aichi-Nagoya 2026 will introduce 'Virtual Taekwondo', a new discipline in which athletes compete in a virtual environment using advanced digital technology. Enjoy the unique appeal of Taekwondo, where tradition and innovation come together.

Tennis(1/2)

The battle of wits begins with serves exceeding 200 kilometers per hour. Mental control is also key.

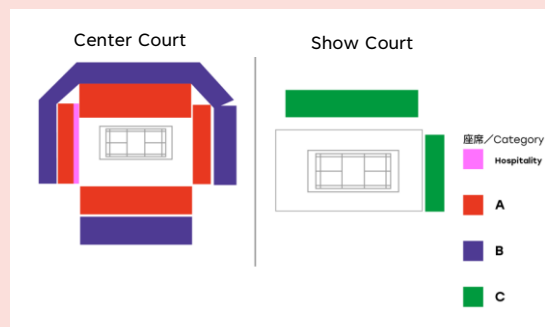

Tennis is a sport where players hit a ball back and forth using rackets across a net in the center of the court, competing to score points. There are men's and women's singles (1-on-1), doubles (2-on-2), and mixed doubles, where male and female pairs compete. Since serving gives an advantage, a key to winning is not only to reliably hold your own service games but also to break your opponent's service games as much as possible.

Soft Tennis

Speed and flexibility - Put all your heart and spirit on that moment!

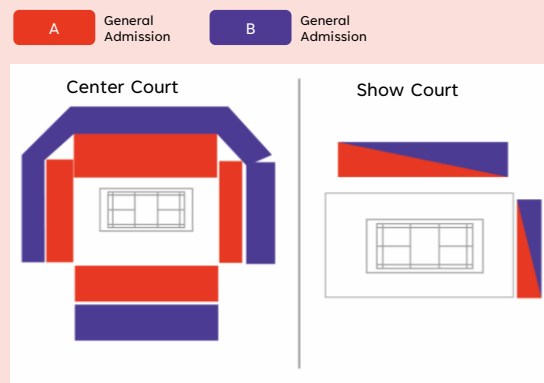

Soft tennis is a racket sport that originated in Japan. Players hit a soft, lightweight rubber ball over the net to compete for points. The court size is the same as the one used for regular tennis, but points are counted simply as '1, 2, 3...'. The first to win four points gets a game, and for example, in a nine-game match, the first player/pair (or team) to win five games is declared the winner.

Because the ball is soft, it is possible to hit a variety of shots by adding spin or varying the speed. However, the ball is also more susceptible to natural conditions such as wind, so adaptable play according to the situation of each match is required.

Triathlon

Speed, Passion & Triathlon!

The ultimate battle played out by the sea, wind, and sun.

Triathlon is a relatively new sport, with the first competitive event held in the United States in 1974. The individual event at the Asian Games consists of three disciplines—0.75 km swim, 20 km bike ride, and 5 km run—performed consecutively by a single athlete, with competitors vying for the fastest finish time.

The mixed relay is competed by Teams of four members, consisting of two women and two men. Each team member completes short distances: 0.3km swim, 6.6km bike ride, and 1km run. This format delivers a fast-paced race.

Volleyball(1/2)

The fierce battle unfolds at the net. Break through the wall that stands in your way with skillful tactics.

Volleyball is a sport played on an 18m x 9m court divided by a net, where two teams compete to score points by hitting the ball over the net. A match consists of five sets, with the team winning three sets first declared the winner.

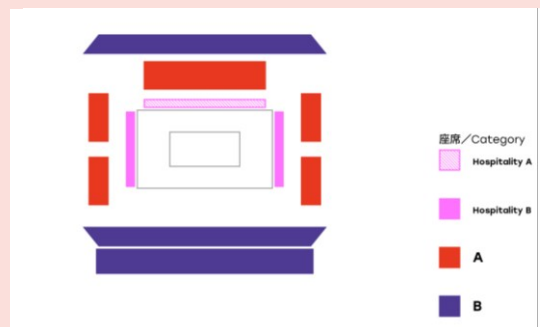

Players must return the ball to the opponent's court without letting it touch their own court floor, and with no more than three touches per team.

Volleyball (Beach Volleyball)

A powerful attack kicks up sand.
A fierce dig keeps it alive.
The court trembles in a split-second clash.

Beach volleyball is a beach sport originating in the United States, played on a court with a net set up on sand, where teams of two players face off against each other. Matches are played as best-of-three sets, with each set won by the first team to reach 21 points. Covering a 8m x 8m court between two players, combined with the sandy terrain and barefoot play, makes it an extremely demanding sport.

Weightlifting

One lift. Cheers erupt, shattering the silence.
The moment born of relentless training.

Weightlifting is a sport where athletes compete to lift a barbell with both hands, categorized by weight class. There are two lifting techniques: the “snatch,” where the barbell is gripped with both hands from the floor and lifted overhead in one fluid motion; and the “clean and jerk,” where the barbell is first lifted from the floor to the collarbone position, then thrust overhead in the next movement.

Wrestling(1/2)

Fusion of strength, skill, and speed! Keep your eyes on the fierce battles of wrestlers striving for the pinnacle!

Wrestling is a simple sport in which competitors do not use any equipment, do not grab clothing, and instead clash body to body while applying techniques to each other. Matches are held according to weight classes. There are two styles: Freestyle and Greco-Roman.

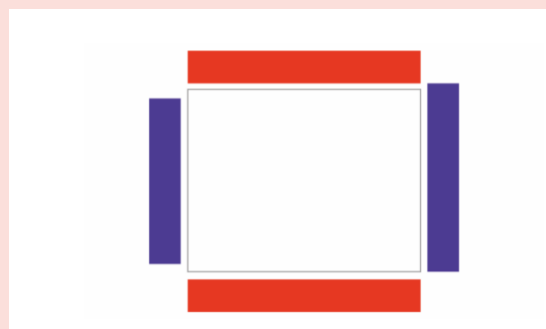

The main difference lies in the range where attacks are allowed. In Freestyle, attacks can target any part of the body, whereas in Greco-Roman, grabbing the opponent below the waist is prohibited.

Wushu

The flower of wushu: “Taolu”;
the fruit of wushu: “Sanda”.
Each move, each technique—elegant yet resolute.
An ancient power, quietly pulsing.

Wushu is a sport based on Chinese martial arts, whose origins are said to date back to the Bronze Age thousands of years ago. It consists of two categories: Taolu and Sanda.

Taolu is a judged competition focusing on the precision and execution of movements, featuring both unarmed events and weapon events using swords, broadswords, cudgels, spears, and other weapons. Sanda is a combat sport where competitors fight to determine victory or defeat, taking place on a platform called a "leitai".
